In order to be admitted to a School of Teacher Education credential program, the candidate must have a grade point average of at least 2.67 in all baccalaureate and post-baccalaureate course work or a grade point average of at least 2.75 in the last 60 semester or 90 quarter units attempted.

If you know or believe that you do not meet either of the above conditions, please use the space below to present those factors that may have contributed to the earned deficiency and those factors that you believe mitigate this deficiency. You may also upload documents that you believe will support the granting of an exception.

Enter explanation here:

Executive Order 758 limits the number of exceptions that can be made at SDSU. The School of Teacher Education Admissions and Retention Committee will consider petitions for program admission.
